The Swing Dancer® Version 1.17 manual was written and illustrated by C.R. Hutchinson and edited by Elaine Pollack, Geri Guardino, Hanh Vo, and Dorothy Becker.

This manual is copyrighted, and all rights are reserved. This document may not, in whole or in part, be copied, photocopied, reproduced, translated or reduced to any electronic medium or machine-readable form without prior consent, in writing, from the Potomac Swing Dance Club, Inc.

The Swing Dancer title and the Swing Dancer logo of Hutch and Kristi are registered trademarks of the Potomac Swing Dance Club, Inc.

As a user of Swing Dancer and possibly unfamiliar with what it takes to develop a system for conceptualizing Swing dancing and putting it into writing, you may take all the years of frustration, sweat, and ulcers for granted and consider PIRATING Swing Dancer! Let me take a moment of your time if you are contemplating stealing a copy of Swing Dancer and, in doing so, committing a FEDERAL OFFENSE.

I would like you to imagine you are confined to a dance floor with a handful of enticing women and/or tied to a computer terminal with the beat of Swing music in your ears for five years. During the course of this time you are so involved in perfecting your system that you are forced to lose thousands of hours of sleep, develop baggy eyes, consume massive quantities of junk food, and discover sex is a dim memory. All of your sweethearts, relatives, friends, associates, and contemporaries hate you because you never see them or return their calls. It's not all sunglasses, sport cars, television talk shows, autographs, and swinging on the boards, while writing a successful manual for Swing dancers. So please consider these things and the more than reasonable price for a legitimate copy before you ruin your Swing dancing destiny forever.

Swing Dancer and its title and logo are protected by copyright and trademark law, and by the trusty silver bullets of the Lone Ranger. Violation of such law can result in civil damages, criminal prosecution, and Swing dance constipation. OK! Enough Paranoia. Now let's get back to the boards with a delightful partner back in our hands and onto the fun stuff.

Price is $20.00 plus $3.50 postage and handling.

DISCLAIMER

To capture the reality of Swing dancing on paper requires concepts and their definitions integrated into a logical consistent structure. As man refines his view of Swing dancing his conceptualization is refined. Although I made every attempt to verify the accuracy of this document, I cannot assume any liability for errors, omissions, and changes in conceptualization in each version. No warranty or other guarantee can be given as to the accuracy or suitability of the material contained herein for a particular purpose, nor can I be liable for any loss or damage in connection with, or arising from, the furnishing, performance, or the use of the materials in this manual.

The concepts, timing, moves, positions, rhythm breaks, and styles as well as the figures contained in this manual were designed to work on your dance floor and with your music if you and your partner are fully compatible with the figures you are using. Compatibility is determined not by me or the Potomac Swing Dance Club, Inc. (PSDC), but by the company that manufactured you and your partner. Accordingly, I and PSDC are unable to guarantee that this product will work properly with couples who do not meet the standards for compatibility set by the manufacturers of you and your incumbent partner.

The illustrations in this manual are meant to be representative, not exact duplicates, of those that appear with you and your partner.

All information contained herein is subject to change without notice.

SWING DANCER SUPPLEMENTS

In order to keep the cost of Swing Dancer at a reasonable price and yet provide supplemental material for interested Swing dancers, Swing Dancer Supplements can be purchased separately. Swing Dancer Supplements are indicated by a SDS preceding the section number in the Contents section.

Swing Dancer supplements provide additional Swing dance material for Swing dancers. They are designed and numbered to be integrated into the Swing Dancer manual. Some of the supplements are automatically distributed to active registered Swing Dancer owners. In addition, active registered Swing Dancer owners receive updates to the supplements as well as to Swing Dancer.

The supplements extensively use the Swing Dancer notation for describing moves and rhythm breaks. They provide examples of how the Swing Dance language is used. The majority of the rhythm breaks used in the opuses and choreographed dances are contained in the additional rhythm breaks supplements.

There is a 10% added on for non-registered or in-active registered Swing Dancer owners.

A TBP (To Be Published) in the order column indicates the supplement is still under preparation.

There is a $2.00 postage and handling fee for each order.

To place an order, use or make a copy of the following Swing Dancer Supplements order form and mail it to:

SWING DANCER'S NOTES

INTRODUCTION

Hi! My name is Swing; American Swing; licensed for fun; alias Alcatraz, Balboa, Beach-Bop, Bebop, Big Apple, Bop, Boogie, Carolina Shag, Circular Swing, Country Swing, East Coast Swing, Flying Lindy, Hustle, Imperial, Jitterbug, Jive, Lindy Hop, Push, Rock 'n' Roll, Savoy, Shag, Slotted Swing, Supreme, Texas Tommy, Tracked Swing, West Coast Swing, Western Swing, Whip, and you name it.

You will not find me in the textbooks or history books.

I am an American's spontaneous expression and most popular activity for enjoying the many musical styles which have developed over the past 70 years.

Because of my free American spirit, I'm controversial, mysterious, and different from other dances.

There are over 100 Swing clubs in the United States that believe I am the greatest of all social activities.

I provide a healthy and joyful activity for everyone who uses me.

The American folks continue to create me, nurture me, and keep me alive. As a result my relatives are the only dances native to the United States which have survived.

My family gets along well with dancers of all ages from every ethnic, religious, racial, and economic background.

My great grandfather, Texas Tommy, is the one who started it all in the 1910s, but few people know about him.

My grandfather was conceived in the South with the birth of Jazz and Blues music, born in the streets of New York City, nursed by the Charleston, and christened "Lindy Hop" after the American hero called Lindbergh.

I had a tough time at first because upper society didn't accept my father "Jitterbug" and his brothers "Big Apple," "Turkey Trot" and "Shag." According to upper society, Turkey Trot was vulgar, Charleston was a building wrecker, Lindy Hop was not fit for nice people, Shag will give you flat feet, and Big Apple exhibited all their objections.

I grew up in the Savoy Ballroom and was christened Savoy Swing and nick named Smooth Lindy. Since I was so popular, the dance schools tamed me for mass distribution.

I was in WWII with American boys and girls and helped boost their morale as they took me to London, Rome, Paris, Berlin, Sydney, Quezon, and Tokyo.

You may know my English half brother, Jive, who performs in local and international ballroom dance competitions.

You will find me in every corner of the world trying to bring joy to whomever will have me as they pick up the beat of the music. You may know my sons, Rock & Roll and Carolina Shag, and my great grandson, Hustle.

Some dancers like to use me for the enjoyment of stepping to the music rhythms, and others for the enjoyment of trying to put me through as many moves and dance positions as they can in the least amount of beats.

I have been all over the planet and even though I may fade for a while, I will always come back.

The Philippines were ecstatic about me and nicknamed me Boogie, Europe is crazy about my son, Rock 'n' Roll, and Japan is still wild over my father, Jitterbug.

My family has been lifelong friends with everyone who uses them to move with the beat on the wood.

I can adapt to any tempo (fast, medium, or slow), as my heart beats at any rate you desire and style, sophisticated or wild.

You can use me, abuse me, or refuse me, but please don't break me by confining me. I'm a rebel for each generation and can't stand to be fenced in as the music and tempo change.

With music the pulse and romance the blood, dancers give me life with no specific style or pace.

I have been here for a long time and I'll be here after you're gone.

Just treat me right, as I never hurt anyone, and I will always be there for you.

Keep on Dancing!

SWING DANCER'S NOTES

PREFACE

The objective of Swing Dancer is to provide a language and vocabulary, as well as dance concepts and definitions, to assist Swing dancers in developing their knowledge, skill, and style. Another objective is to provide a structure for describing and documenting what all the Swing dancers are doing on the wood. Swing Dancer will not teach you how to Swing dance. The best way to learn is to take lessons from a qualified Swing dance teacher and to watch good Swing dancers move on the wood.

Have you ever tried to find two dance organizations or teachers, or dancers who agree on the same name or terminology, let alone technique and/or style, for a Swing dance figure? In dancing, and particularly in Swing dancing, there does not exist a structured vocabulary for figures including dance positions, arm positions, hand holds, moves, movement, move variations, rhythms, and rhythm breaks. For example, during the late 1970s and early 1980s the Hustle emphasized moving between a myriad of dance positions using three beats, whereas West Coast Swing used six beats in the late 1950s and early 1960s. At least a half-dozen books were published in the late 1970s describing the Hustle with little common terminology between them.

Each dance organization and each independent dance teacher has a name for a figure as well as technique and style for executing a figure. Variety is the spice of life, and variety in Swing dance figures is what makes the Swing dance swing. However, in the realm of figure names and terminology, some standardization in Swing dancing would facilitate communication in lessons and workshops. It would also help eliminate some of the impression (euphemism for subjective) and political judging in competitions.

The introduction of home video has made it easier to capture, preserve, and transmit dance movements and what Swing dancers are doing. Television programs, such as "American Bandstand," "Soul Train," and the now defunct "Dance Fever," have played a major role. Seeing movement is one thing; understanding it however, requires conceptualizing, definition, and integration of movement. Dance movement vocabulary exists for ballet, jazz, tap, ballroom, disco, adagio, and break dancing, as well as for gymnastics, ice skating, judo, and karate. As yet, there does not exist an integrated and standardized vocabulary to communicate dance movement in all the activities, Labanotation notwithstanding.

The Golden State Dance Teachers Association (GSDTA), under the direction of Skippy Blair, has made a step towards standardizing Swing dance terminology in California with some fallout across the U.S. In addition, the U.S. Swing Dance Council (USSDC), headquartered in Phoenix, AZ, has taken a big step in attempting to reach agreement on common primary Swing figures and terminology throughout the U.S. However, just how much impact the GSDTA and USSDC will have on standardizing Swing terminology remains to be seen. Fred Astaire is going one way, Arthur Murray is going another, and Dance Masters of America is betwixt and between. Also going in different directions are members of the North American Dance Teachers Association (NADTA), the National Dance Teachers Association (NDTA), American Ballroom Company (ABC), and the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing (ISTD), as well as independent studios and teachers. High school and college dance/physical education departments are doing their own thing along with Betty White, Lauré Haile, etc., and the National Dance Council of America (NDCA) is trying to keep the United States Amateur Ballroom Dancers Association (USABDA) happy with European innovations! Besides, the attractive, young, and lithe beings don't care about standardization! What learning to dance comes down to, with all the dancers and self-proclaimed gurus around, is choosing the dance styles you like and learning/copying all you can get from them.

I began annotating Swing dancing in 1965. Since you can please some of the dancers all of the time and all of the dancers none of the time, in 1980 I decided to wipe my Swing terminology slate clean and reorganize my Swing conceptualizing from the ground up, trying to keep as much common terminology as possible, and not concern myself with pleasing any of the dancers any of the time! Swing Dancer is the result of that reorganization. It provides a new framework for Swing dance conceptualizing which reduced over 60 pages describing over 1,000 figures to one page describing over 26,542,080 figures.

Abbreviations are used extensively in Swing Dancer. They are used for quick annotation of figures and to conserve space. Some abbreviations are used more than once. For example, B for Backward and Basket, Co for Collect and Collar, and R for Right, Right Leg, and Replaceward. However, there is no duplication of abbreviations when taken in the context of a move, position, or rhythm break.

Swing Dancer is being published in order to provide another view of Swing dance and raise the order of magnitude and stakes over the competition of possible figures and rhythm breaks in Swing. As an additional benefit, it can also be used for understanding all the other styles of Swing and ballroom dances as well as helping those who are looking for something new and different to do in the nineties (if not for starting a fire in your fireplace).

Swing Dancer can be used by dancers as well as dance scholars, teachers, coaches and students. Swing Dancer is designed to facilitate taking notes, planning training, and monitoring progress while studying Swing dance. Swing Dancer is also designed to be placed in a three ring, 8.5 x 11 inch, loose-leaf binder. It can also be indexed with tabs of your own choice, when and where you want them. It can be read straight or skipped through. For example, the sections on music need only be skimmed if the reader is familiar with musical concepts.

Actually, I owe credit to everyone who dances, as I buy, trade, and/or steal material just like everyone else. Who got me started? Carter Lovisoni of Denver in 1965, with his dance assistants Jeanie Petrick and Jeanette Schreffler. What kept me going? The enjoyment of Swing, Rock and Roll, Hustle, and Rhythm & Blues music, and all the Swing dancers I have watched, studied, and danced with since then.

In addition to Carter Lovisoni, I am particularly indebted to the following teachers who also directly contributed to my dancing: Ray Bacca, Skippy Blair, Glenis Dee Creger, Gloria Horrigan, John Lee, Ed Long, Laska Low, Joe Jenkins, Jackie McGee, Nancy-Beth Orr, Rickey Thornhill-Gieger, and Charlie Womble.

A special thanks must also be given to my dance partners who put up with me along the way: Yvonne Fator, Linda Lang, Gerti Seelig, Julie Lobaugh, Luci Joyce, Carolyn Seemann, and Lucy Renzi.

I also must thank my students who I taught and coached over the years; Rachel Aaron, Nolan & Nancy Adams, Chuck Alexander, Allen Alkire, Rondi Allen, Suzanne Alvarez, Peggy Ames, Rick Andrews, Pat Arnold, John & Karen Ashe, Nancy Astrove, Nancy Axelrod, Jan Ayton, Barbara Bailey, Marjorie Banks, Sue-Ann Barbera, Walter Barton, Dee Bassett, Steve & Dorothy Becker, Susan Benjamin, Jim Bennett, George Berman, Jessica Bernstein, Mark Bernstein, Judy Berry, Steve Betteke, Al Beverstock, Carolyn Biczal, Rhonda Bitterli, Raymond Bjorklund, Siegfried Bleher, Cathy Bock, Maria Bowie, Larry Boyer, Carl & Margaret Breerwood, Robin Britt, Cathy Broad, Virginia Broadbeck, Kathleen Brogan, Craig Brooks, Debbie Buehler, Judy Burke, Bettie Burnett, Edith Burns, Stacy Burrier, Pam Burton, Cliff Butcher, Bill & Jo Buxton, Neil Byrd, Sylvie Carlier, Shelly Carlson, Walter & Holly Carr, Shane Carstens, Dianne Cartledge, Bob Castagnetto, Gail Cerra, Mike Chandler, Evey Cherow, Michael & Cathi Close, George Cody, Bill Coe, Terry Cole, Les Cole, Mary Conant, Sandy Connelly, Tina Conner, Don Cook, Wendy Cooper, Marilyn Copans, Linda Cortese, Chuck & Adrian Cowan, Laurie Cullen, Joe & Van Czika, Stuart & Sylvia Danovitch, Dan Darlington, Leslie Darlington, Gary Davis, Pat DeLeo, Elizabeth Derringer, Jane Dodson, Vickie Doff, Loch Dreizler, Bill Dudzik, Cathie Duggins, Forest Duncan, Wendy Dutcher, Carolyn Sonny Watson, Dena Wayman, Carol Werkmeister, Sam West, Sara West, Kenny Wetzel, Al White, Dayna Wilkinson, Jack Willingham, Chris Wilson, Jae Yoon, and all of the rest of you that I have not mentioned.

And in memory of those who gave us their moves on the wood before going to the land of Swing dance in the heavens: Buddy Austin, Dean Collins, Ray Fox, Don Gallagher, Frank Mannion, Gene Mills, Albert Minns, Lou Southern, and Lenny Smith.

Let's not forget the song writers, singers, and musicians who give us our music. Where do you want to begin the list.

A thanks also to the disk jockeys who keep the cuts on the turntable for us to enjoy: Bob Brewer, Pat Bryant, Judy Collins, John Festa, Joe Marchioni, Roc Sarlo, Kenny Wetzel, and all the other Swing dance disk jockeys out there. And especially to Doug "The Gator" Levitas, the Potomac Swing Dance Club disk jockey, for keeping the air filled with good solid Rhythm & Blues Swing dance music in the Washington, DC area. Keep those platters spinning!

A thanks to the promoters of Swing dance clubs and Swing dance contests, such as the Jack Bridges U.S. Open Swing Dance Championships and the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce National Shag Dance Championships, for us to enjoy, and in which we can improve, our Swing dancing.

And in conclusion, a special thanks to: Dick Mason, the publisher of Dance Week, for his encouragement to write Swing Dancer; to Elaine Pollack, Judy Hamburg, Geri Guardino, Hanh Vo, and Dorothy Becker for their detailed and unbiased edits and comments on initial drafts of Swing Dancer; to Nancy-Beth Orr for her dancing and inspiration; to Jeanie Petrick and Jeanette Schreffler for keeping five spins ahead of me; and to Carter Lovisoni for lighting, fanning, and fueling my Swing dance fires.

Good Premises and Keep on Dancing! Hutch
